

Master of Arts (M.A) (Economics)

The programme of Master in Economics have been designed keeping in mind the present need of the system where study of Economics has become very important. The knowledge of Economics is very useful as it broadens our outlook, sharpens our intellect, and inculcates in us the habit of balanced thinking. After completing this course the students will improve upon their logical thoughts, will be able to infer data logically and systematically and will become more innovative in their thought process. After completing this course the student shall be able to work as business analyst, investment analyst, research work in areas of international relations, socio – economic areas, statistical departments, planning etc.

The Examination system for the below mentioned subjects shall be based on the following scheme:

Semester I

Paper Code	Subject	Evaluation				L	PDSA	Credit
		CA		ET	T
ECO I	Principles of Micro Economics	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO II	Principles of Macro Economics	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO III	Mathematics for Economics	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO IV	Economic Development and Policy in India	40		60	100	5	1	6

Semester II

Paper Code	Subject	Evaluation				L	PDSA	Credit
		CA		ET	T
ECO V	Open Economy Macro Economics	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO VI	General Equilibrium and Welfare Analysis	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO	Economics of Growth	40		60	100	5	1	6

VII
ECO VIII	Monetary Economics	40		60	100	5	1	6

Semester III

Paper Code	Subject	Evaluation				L	PDSA	Credit
		CA		ET	T
ECO IX	Public Finance	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO X	Statistical Methods	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO XI	Optional I	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO XII	Optional II	40		60	100	5	1	6

Semester IV

Paper Code	Subject	Evaluation				L	PDSA	Credit
ECO XIII	International Economics	CA		ET	T
ECO XIV	Financial Institutions and Markets	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO XV	Optional III	40		60	100	5	1	6
ECO XVI	Optional IV	40		60	100	5	1	6

		40		60	100	5	1	6
--	--	----	--	----	-----	---	---	---

Optional Courses for III Semester

1. Environmental Economics
2. Introduction to Econometrics
3. Economics of Health & Education
4. Industrial Economics
5. History of Economics Thought

Optional Courses for IV Semester

1. International Finance
2. India's Public Finance
3. Population Studies
4. Economics of Infrastructure
5. Agriculture Economics